

Movie Title: - Peer Pressure

Story

There used to be this group of students at school who were always lazy, their name is Yeabsira, Tefera and Teklu .They never did anything except starrng at screen, on the other side there is a good student named Binyam who is a disciplined person and determined to be the clever student he could be. he was swept up in the university lifestyle – attending lectures, staying up late studying. Binyam put all his energy into his studies. Binyam resides with three sluggish college students who are constantly binge-watching movies and using social media. They don't attend a class even if they attend a class, they don't hear a word. Their mind is elsewhere, thinking about anything but the class. The teacher calls on the student, but they don't respond. They're too busy staring out the window, daydreaming.

Once upon a time, it was morning, and the discipline guy Binyam gets up early and gets ready for class while others are still sleeping, they repeatedly make alarm off and resume their idle dreams. Finally, Binyam completes his preparation and leaves the dorm. As always, this indolent student usually forgets until the last minute, therefore on that particular day they hurried to class. With the exception of one friend, Yabisira, who always tries to do well in school but feels under pressure from his peers to not focus on his goals, the other dorm mates began to bully Binyam by playing games and shouting when he arrived in the dorm during lunchtime to take a nap and study for his exam. Binyam always try to make Yabsira close to him, he takes to library with him while other are bullying around.

As they take the final test at the end of the year, The examiner, Abdirohman entered to the classroom to take the exam and then the exam starts on, the disruptive roommates get caught for cheating and the examiner signed on their exam paper then the teacher called Abel gave them F grade, but Binyam receives an A Grade and he enjoys in it. Yabsira, who strives to transform himself, receives a C, but he is still pleased because he has made some progress in this regard. Finally, Teklu and Tefera, two dorm mates, are dismissed from the University for failing to meet the standards so they carry their bags and get out of the dorm or campus.
